

Communications

The California POST Perishable Skills Program requires two hours of communications training every twenty-four months as part of the POST Continuing Professional Training (CPT) requirements. To satisfy this requirement, Azusa Police Officers complete the California POST Tactical Communication (WEB) course on the learning portal.